SUNDAY COMPANION

I Am the Way, the Truth, and the Life

Jesus: The Great I Am • Week 6 • November 1, 2026
John 14:1–9 • Pastor Michael Trimble

"I am the way, and the truth, and the life.
No one comes to the Father except through me."
John 14:6, ESV

Jesus spoke to troubled disciples facing an uncertain future. Thomas did not know the way. Jesus pointed him to Himself. Through Jesus, we come to the Father and receive the life only He can give.

1. He Is the Way

Without Christ, we are lost. We need to personally trust the Savior we know about. Through His death and resurrection, Jesus brings us to the Father. We respond with repentance and faith.

Supporting Scripture: Isaiah 53:6; 1 Peter 3:18

2. He Is the Truth

Without Christ, we are deceived. We can sincerely believe something and still be wrong. Jesus reveals the Father faithfully. As we abide in His word, His truth corrects us and brings freedom.

Consider: Am I seeking the truth, or someone who will agree with me?

Supporting Scripture: Proverbs 14:12; John 8:31–32

3. He Is the Life

Without Christ, we are spiritually dead. God makes us alive with Christ by His grace. Life in fellowship with Him brings:

Belonging: We are welcomed into God's family.

Forgiveness: We can bring Him the sin we cannot undo.

Purpose: Ordinary days become opportunities to love and serve.

Hope: Our future rests in His promise to be with Him.

Supporting Scripture: Ephesians 2:1–5, 19; 1:7; 2:10; 1 John 5:11–12

Our Response

Have I personally entrusted my life to Jesus? If I already belong to Him, what lie, sin, or fear do I need to bring to Him this week?

A prayer: Lord Jesus, I need the life You give. Forgive my sin and help me trust You. Let Your word shape my thinking and Your love guide my actions. Thank You for bringing me to the Father. Amen.
